MOVING THE CONVERSATION FORWARD ABOUT SCHOOL SEGREGATION IN NEW JERSEY

November 21, 2019 • 6:30 - 8:00 PM • Mount Zion Baptist Church, Pleasantville, NJ

Join with education, civil rights, labor, faith and local elected leaders on November 21, 2019 to discuss the pressing issue of school segregation in New Jersey. You can register at buildingoneamerica.org

The symposium, organized by Building One New Jersey and held at Mount Zion Baptist Church in Pleasantville, will grapple with the serious problem and debilitating consequences of New Jersey's racially segregated schools.

It will propose a community and legislative response aimed at reducing segregation, strengthening all our communities and improving education for all students.

The forum will start at 6:30 PM and end at 8:00 PM at the Mount Zion Baptist Church, 353 S New Rd, Pleasantville.

The convening will include experts, civil rights lawyers and historians and well as educators, parents, local leaders and state policy makers. Speakers include:

- John C. Brittain - Olie W. Rauh Professor of Law, UDC David A. Clarke School of Law
- Stephen M. Sweeney - President of the New Jersey Senate
- Ashley Bennett - Atlantic County Freeholder
- Rev. Willie Francois - Pastor, Mount Zion Baptist Church, Pleasantville, NJ
- Yolanda Melville, Esquire - President of the NAACP Next Generation Alumni Leadership Council
- Frank Santo - Councilman, Galloway Township, NJ
